CONSTRUCTION STARTED ON REW PRACUE BRIDGE

NEW BRIDGE IN FRACUE -- Prace, No 130, 3 Jun 49

Work was recently begun on the new Stefanik Bridge over the Vitava in Prague. The bridge, to be 24 meters wide, will cost 80 million crowns. It will be on the site of the old chain bridge which was dismantled by the Germans during the war. The bridge will be completed by 1951.

On 1 June the first blocks of concrete were made for the guide pillars. A cable crane carries a 0.75-subic-meter bucket of concrete from the mixer to the shore every 5 minutes. This is used for the caissons, which are to use 270 cubic meters of concrete and weigh 700 tons. The reinforced-concrete construction of the caissons will be 5.20 meters high.

Since the concrete work is so important now, 147 employees are working in two shifts, from 0600 to 2200.

RAIL LIME TO BE TRIPLE-TRACKED -- Lidova Demokracie, No 116, 18 May 49

One of the tasks of the Five-Year Plan in transport is to triple-track the Prague-Liben-Poricany line. The Spicska Nova Ves-Zilina line will be electrified first, and then the Prague-Ceska Trebova line. Some stations are 60 - 80 years old and should be replaced. One of the most modern stations in Europe will be built in Pardubice.
